STAFF QUARTERS

Don Bosco College (Co-Ed), Yelagiri Hills provides staff quarters within the campus to support the residential needs of teaching and non-teaching staff. The availability of on-campus accommodation ensures convenience, safety, and timely accessibility to academic and administrative responsibilities.

The staff quarters are well-constructed and adequately maintained, providing essential amenities such as electricity, water supply, sanitation facilities, and proper ventilation. The residential facility promotes a comfortable living environment and enables staff members to actively participate in academic, co-curricular, and student support activities beyond regular working hours.

Regular maintenance and necessary infrastructural support are ensured by the management to provide a safe and hygienic living space. The provision of staff quarters significantly contributes to institutional efficiency, staff welfare, and the smooth functioning of academic and administrative operations.

Thus, the staff quarters facility reflects the institution's commitment to employee well-being and supports a stable and dedicated academic environment on campus.
