Display of Course(s) at the entrance of the Institution

At the main gate of Don Bosco College (Co-Ed), Yelagiri Hills, a permanent display board has been prominently installed to provide clear and transparent information about the courses offered by the Institution. This display serves as an immediate reference for students, parents, visitors, and regulatory authorities, ensuring awareness of the academic programmes conducted by the college. The board reflects the Institution's commitment to transparency, regulatory compliance, and adherence to the norms prescribed by statutory and affiliating bodies such as AICTE, NIRF, AISHE, and the University. The placement at the entrance ensures high visibility and easy accessibility of information to all stakeholders.
