BARRIER-FREE ENVIRONMENT

DESCRIPTION

Don Bosco College (Co-Ed), Yelagiri Hills is committed to creating a barrier-free environment on its campus to ensure inclusivity and accessibility for all students, faculty, staff, and visitors. The college has implemented various facilities and infrastructure modifications to remove physical, social, and technological barriers, enabling individuals with diverse abilities to navigate and utilize campus resources independently and safely. The campus features ramps, elevators, accessible washrooms, and wide pathways to support persons with mobility challenges. Signage in Braille, tactile pathways, and auditory announcements assist visually impaired individuals, while captioning, assistive devices, and digital accessibility tools help those with hearing or cognitive difficulties. Additionally, awareness programs and support services are provided to promote inclusivity and social participation. These measures are regularly reviewed and maintained to ensure continued accessibility and convenience for everyone. By implementing a barrier-free environment, the college fosters equal opportunities, independence, and dignity, thereby promoting an inclusive and supportive campus culture.
