DON BOSCO COLLEGE (CO-ED), YELAGIRI HILLS
BBA & BCA PROGRAMMES – AICTE APPROVED COURSES
ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE
Guidelines, Objectives, Functions and Procedures

The Anti-Ragging Committee is constituted to maintain a safe, respectful and ragging-free atmosphere for students in the College campus and hostel. The Committee functions in accordance with applicable AICTE and UGC provisions and institutional procedures for the prevention and prohibition of ragging.

The Committee shall create awareness among students and parents during admission and induction programmes and communicate the forms, consequences and legal implications of ragging. Appropriate anti-ragging information, contact details and reporting mechanisms shall be displayed at prominent locations.

Regular awareness programmes, orientation sessions and monitoring activities shall be undertaken. The Committee shall coordinate with the Anti-Ragging Squad for preventive measures, inspection of vulnerable areas and prompt reporting of incidents.

OBJECTIVES OF THE ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

- To prevent and prohibit ragging in the College campus, hostel and other places under the institution's control.
- To create awareness among students and parents about the meaning, forms, consequences and legal implications of ragging.
- To ensure that students, particularly freshers, can pursue their studies in a safe and respectful environment.
- To establish clear channels for reporting and responding to complaints relating to ragging.
- To monitor vulnerable areas and strengthen preventive measures through regular inspections and awareness activities.
- To coordinate with the Anti-Ragging Squad and other competent authorities for prevention, enquiry and follow-up.
- To take appropriate disciplinary action, as per applicable rules, when ragging is established.

WHAT CONSTITUTES RAGGING

Ragging includes any conduct by a student or group of students, through words, writing or actions, that teases, treats or handles another student with rudeness; causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, fear, physical or psychological harm; or creates shame or embarrassment. It also includes disrupting academic activities, exploiting a fresher's services, financial extortion or forced expenditure, physical abuse, abusive communication or conduct that adversely affects a student's mental health or self-confidence.

FUNCTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Display and communicate anti-ragging rules, contact details and reporting procedures at prominent locations.
2. Conduct anti-ragging awareness and sensitization programmes during admission, induction and other suitable occasions.
3. Obtain the prescribed anti-ragging undertakings from students and parents, as applicable.
4. Coordinate with the Anti-Ragging Squad and support regular meetings, monitoring and surprise visits to vulnerable areas.
5. Receive and examine reports or complaints relating to ragging and ensure that appropriate action is initiated.
6. Consider the facts and seriousness of an established incident and recommend or impose appropriate disciplinary measures in accordance with applicable rules.
7. Maintain suitable records of complaints, enquiries, actions and follow-up.
8. Promote a culture of dignity, mutual respect and zero tolerance towards ragging.

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION FOR ESTABLISHED RAGGING

Where ragging is established, the institution shall take appropriate disciplinary action based on the facts, nature and gravity of the incident and the applicable regulations. Depending on the seriousness of the case, measures may include suspension from classes or academic privileges, withholding benefits, debarment from examinations, hostel suspension or expulsion, cancellation of admission, rustication or other action permitted under the applicable rules.

The attached source also notes that appeals against institutional orders are to be dealt with through the competent university authority as applicable, and that ragging may attract legal consequences. filecite turn4file0 L83-L109
